ACCOUNT VS GAMES/TOWNS

To avoid confusion on what your Account is, compared to what your Game or Town is. Here's a quick explanation;

What is your Account?

- Your Account is what connects you to your Game or Town
- An account is where your personal information is kept (Including Purchases)
- Binding to Facebook, Google or Apple is only possible to an account
- You can have multiple games linked to just one account (3 max per Region)

What is your Game or Town?

- Your games are what you are currently playing
- Games are linked to an Account
- You cannot delete games or towns from Regions

What happens when you Delete your Account?

- Your games or towns stay in your region and persist without you
- Your personal information is destroyed (Including Purchases)
- All proof of your ownership of your games or towns is deleted
- Your bound social accounts are disassociated
- THIS IS IRREVERSABLE

When you have the maximum number of games on a Region, you will not be able to relocate any game to that Region at the end of the Season.

Number of games: 1/3
